The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

For the far away Cousins, whose bodily presence was elsewhere but who came very near us in spirit on our reunion day, April 24, we would give a moving picture and short resume of the day. We wonder if their telepathic vision took in the approach from old Kawaiahao church—the old coral Chamberlain house, whose straight lines, small windows and inset doors speak of the upright character and strong, unflinching purpose of the missionaries; the stone wall enclosing the yard on King street and Kawaiahao lane; the immense, overhanging samang trees, the tamarind and the mangoes, the grassy lawn which extends in front of this and on past the office which was the long-ago printing office, and the old frame Mission Home, or “Cooke House” as many remember it. A hibiscus hedge, a kukui tree, two cocoanut trees and two other little palms are there but do not obstruct the view. Passing around this building and two old wells, between these and the Kaiulani Home for Girls, we reach the rear lawn. This is shut in on the “makai” side by a high board fence over which clammers a purple bougainvillea, and on the “mauka” side by the stone kitchen of the Mission Home draped with the alamanda vine bursting into yellow bloom. Between these stood the tent, decorated with branches of “Gravillia Robusta” in yellow flower, the large, tropical variegated “Pothos Aurea” vine and a jardiniere of rare yellow lilies, all golden, to represent the years and the experience of the guests of honor.

In some ways it was like old “General Meeting” days, for children's voices could be heard inside the tent and outside. There were little cherubs there in their mothers' arms, and children perched upon their fathers' shoulders, to answer to the roll-call by families; there were boys and girls on the front seats trying to read from the charts on the easel the names of their forbears; there were young men and maidens, and men and women in the prime of life, all wreathed in smiles and full of interest. And there were the guests of honor—sons and daughters of the missionaries, whose snowy locks covered memories of these old grounds more wonderful than stories of fairy-land; for these men and women had slept in these old rooms, pumped water from these wells, played “I spy” in the old attic, and assembled at these gates to walk, bare-foot, over the treeless dusty plains to Punahou school. Oh, the stories these sons and daughters might have told that day! There were, in 1852, two hundred thirty-five of this second generation, of whom one hundred sixteen remain. Seventeen of these were present in body on Saturday, and many more in spirit. Twenty-nine remembered to send either a message or photograph. It was especially when gathered about the long photo-covered tables in office and Mission House that memory dwelt long on other days and we felt the presence of those we loved in the precious days of long ago. There were many friends and visitors present. It could not have been a representative meeting otherwise, for in olden days these homes were never without guests, and all, from the king to the homeless stranger, were welcome.

With President G. R. Carter in the chair, much business was transacted in short time—officers elected, appropriations made, condensed reports read, a new trustee, F. C. Atherton, appointed to succeed the late A. B. Clark; a collection of $91.22 was taken and a donation received from Mrs. E. K. Wilder of $1,000 for the care of the dear old home where she was born. There was music, too—"Blest be the Tie", that has bound this society together for sixty-three years, and that other song, for closing, sung by all Cousins and lived by them in many lands, "Waft, waft ye winds His story."

There was a new item of business, a "Report from the Chamberlain House Committee." This report told of a conference meeting with a committee from the Hawaiian Board relative to the raising of funds for their Memorial Building. It was presented by W. W. Chamberlain, A. C. Alexander speaking on behalf of the Hawaiian Board, was commented upon favorably and accepted. So harmonious was the expression that the $15,000 needed seemed a small sum between us and the realization of the hopes of the Cousins for a restored Chamberlain House, representing the home life of the sainted mothers, and a share in the new Memorial Building of the Hawaiian Board, headquarters for the continued work of the Fathers. The following brief statement is made for the benefit of absent Cousins.

The Need of the Memorial Building.

1st. To better house the Hawaiian Board which, with its many branches, is carrying on work among all the various nationalities in Hawaii nei, and in the administration of which much office room is required.

2nd. As a fitting and permanent memorial to the Mission Fathers this building in which to continue their work should be erected.

As the Cousins are the direct descendants of the Fathers and

2ND FLOOR PLAN

Mothers, and the Hawaiian Board continues the work of the Fathers, what more fitting than that they join hands in honoring the memory of those so dear to both organizations.

The Cousins' Part in the Memorial.

The Cousins have for years past been working and planning for a Missionary Memorial Building to be erected on the Chamberlain grounds. Now comes the proposition from the Hawaiian Board to join with them in the erection of a Memorial Building on the opposite side of King Street from the Old Mission Home.

We are to raise at least $15,000, the first $7500 of which shall be used for the restoration of the old Chamberlain House to its original state, to be later furnished with old "mission-used" furniture.

The second $7500 shall be given to the Hawaiian Board's Memorial Building, in which we will have the free use of a vault and adjoining rooms on the second floor, and will become the trusted custodians of the old Records of the Mission as long as we occupy the building.

The new president, Miss A. E. Judd, has since enlarged this Chamberlain House Committee, and it is already planning for the year's work.

The Roll-Call by Families was not quite so exciting this year as last. Many Cookes and Alexanders being absent from the city the Judds easily led with 25 descendants present. The Halls, however, with 12 present, numbered as many as the winners the first year, and the Chamberlains were not far behind.

Besides the "Roll-Call by Families" and the "Roll-Call of Sons and Daughters," there was begun a "Competitive Honor Roll," on which are to be placed the names of all descendants present at the Annual Meeting for five consecutive years. There were ninety-nine cards of attendance signed this year.

For next year's Annual Meeting the President has a plan that will appeal especially to the boys and girls, or fourth generation.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT

A Summary of the Year.

The manuscript of the 1914 Annual Report was sent to the printer on May 6, and seventeen days later the 500 books were received at the Old Mission Home and were immediately sent to their various destinations. The small number made it expedient to send but one book to a family, except to those families whose members are greatly scattered. A few copies, however, are still reserved for any who wish for one.

There has been but one extra meeting this year—the delightfully informal reception given Mrs. Lydia B. Coan to celebrate the 80th anniversary of her birth in this Old Mission Home.

Certificates of stock in the Morning Star have been received from Mrs. Emma Lyman Wilcox, Mrs. Agnes Boyd Judd, F. S. Lyman and Mrs. H. C. Coleman. Mrs. W. Hyde Rice contributed an old letter written by Mr. Ely, found among Mother Rice's papers. Mrs. H. C. Coleman gave a booklet, "The Story of the Morning Star". We already had, from Miss Chamberlain's collection, "Sequel to Morning Star, No. 2," and we now want, "Sequel to Morning Star, No. 1."

The legacy, amounting to $2,500.00, left by our Cousin Mrs. Stangenwald, the interest of which is to be used in the education of Hawaiian children, was accepted with many thanks, and is now paying the expenses of three dear little Hawaiian girls, one at Kamehameha and two at Maunaolu. The mothers of these girls were former Maunaolu girls, who have "made good." One died recently, and the other two are widows. We believe the girls will do credit to Mrs. Stangenwald's liberality. Mrs. Eleanor Waterhouse Wood has since presented the Society with Dr. Stangenwald's large bookcase, a "what-not," four flower-vases, some of Mrs. Stangenwald's beautiful handiwork in wax, leather, hair and shells, some photographs and some of Mother Dimond's dishes that she often loaned to Fort Street Church for church socials. Mrs. H. M. Alexander has given a koa table made by Father Emerson.

More genealogical records have been secured and placed in the Big Book. Boxes of old letters, essays and papers have been classified and indexed. The books, also pictures and other belongings, have been indexed and, thanks to Mr. Atherton, there have been made typewritten copies of the Thaddeus journal, besides other journals and letters loaned to the society.

It has been a great treat to welcome back some long-absent Cousins, Dr. Hiram Bingham of Yale with his family, W. R. Castle, Jr., of Harvard, Prof. Martha Beckwith of Vassar College, Prof. and Mrs. Van Slyke and Mrs. Eleanor Waterhouse Wood; and also to greet the Misses Rowell and Clara Dole, and Mr. George Bates and his sister, children of Dudley C. Bates.

There have been 14 marriages among the Cousins this year, 31 births and 21 deaths. We have received 9 new members and the total number of Cousins is 1004.

MISSIONARIES, CHURCHES, ETC.

Our friends of Nauru, Mr. and Mrs. Delaporte, and Miss Meitzner, have been in the line of the world-wide war. One letter informed us that all work at the Pacific Phosphate Co. had ceased. On Sep. 9, the Australian cruiser "Melbourne" touched at Nauru and destroyed the wireless station, taking the two operators prisoners. They left the people with short rations, but on Sep. 21st a Norwegian steamer arrived bringing foodstuff and soon after the supplies sent from Honolulu reached them, relieving all anxiety. Mrs. Delaporte was quite ill in August and may be obliged to leave Nauru soon. Augusta and Paul are doing well in the Oberlin schools and Mabel has gone to be with them.

The latest news, however, from the Delaportes is that they have been allowed, by the American Board, a furlough, on account of the health of Mrs. Delaporte and Miss Meitzner. They will touch here and proceed to the mainland, where Mrs. Delaporte will be with her children in Oberlin, Ohio, while Mr. Delaporte, in New York, expects to see the completed Bible in the Nauru language, and a book of 250 hymns, with tunes, through the press. In this work he will have the assistance of a young man, Kim Jedidamo, whom he has trained from childhood.

The A. B. C. F. M. delegation, on their return from the centenary celebration at Bombay, India, Aug. 15, were royally entertained by members of the Hawaiian Board. They were shown the sights of the city, lunched at Central Union Parish House and were taken to a grand mass meeting at old Kawaiahao Church, where they were greeted by the Hawaiian Board and Woman's Board of Missions, by representatives from the Hawaiian, Japanese, Chinese and Portuguese churches, and in song by the Kamehameha schools. They can never forget their day spent in Honolulu.

On Aug. 17, Miss Tollman, a friend and former co-worker with

In August, Rev. Kimura, the "Moody of Japan," spent a few weeks in Honolulu, speaking in Central Union, Y. M. C. A., and at all the Japanese churches. His slogan was "1000 souls for Christ in Hawaii."

"Dan Crawford" was here in May and June and spoke to large crowds from C. U. church pulpit, at the Y. M. C. A., at Men's League and in the theater, also on the islands of Maui and Hawaii. He received financial aid toward establishing two schools in Africa, to be called "Honolulu" and "Maui".

Then in July we had the pleasure of hearing Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," who spent two weeks in Hawaii while on his way to New Zealand. He also spoke at C. U. church, at the Y. M. C. A., at an evangelistic meeting in the theater, and at the Hawaiian Evangelical Association at Wailuku, Maui.

That meeting of the Association at Wailuku, the 92nd Annual Conference, was said to be one of the best ever held. Hospitality abounded, temperance and anti-saloon work was enthusiastic, sunrise meetings were an inspiration, Bible-readings under A. A. Ebersole constituted a feast, sanitation and hygiene, Sunday attractions for children, music—all combined to make the convention a delight. Peace seemed to permeate all discussions and meetings, and "aloha" was the key-note to which all nationalities were attuned.

In the Methodist church there have been changes. Rev. Elmer Smith, who had won a place in the hearts of people of all denominations, resigned to go to Portland, Oregon. Rev. Wm. H. Fry, who has charge of the Korean churches, has entered with zeal into the civic welfare of our city, and Rev. E. E. Brace, with his interesting family, has come to supply the Methodist pulpit.

Central Union Church loaned its minister, Dr. Doremus Scudder, for two months to the "Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America," to assist Dr. Sidney L. Gulick in bringing about juster relations between the United States and Japan. Bible study, under Rev. A. A. Ebersole, has been taken up by "A Business Men's Bible Class" on Tuesday evenings, The Woman's Class on Thursdays, and the Young People's Class on Sunday mornings, and these have proved interesting as well as helpful. The Bible-school held its annual picnic on Oct. 3d at Pearl Harbor, where with boat excursions, races, games and slides, an excellent dinner and car-ride, it was voted a grand success. The next day the school assembled in force for the opening of the new Bible-school year.

The Anti-Saloon League, under Dr. J. W. Wadman, Superintendent, and Secretary George Paty, have done strenuous and efficient work in closing saloons, holding up licenses and educating the people to welcome prohibition.

The Y. M. C. A. with its 1500 members and able leaders, its twenty-five Bible clubs, its educational classes and its games, is a wonderful power for good. A Christmas present of $500 was donated for a swimming pool, and an artesian well is being bored on the lawn back of the building.

The Y. W. C. A. has never seemed so wide awake as now. The Homestead, precious as the home of Father and Mother Castle, was in need of repairs, and a delicatessen sale brought in the funds. Since then it was found that $3868 were needed to complete the budget for the year, and a committee sent out for one day raised the amount with $500 over as a fund for the new building.

The Castle Home for Children has lost, through illness, the Misses Johnson, who for thirteen years have been the efficient managers of that charming home, and "mothers" to the little ones. Miss Belle Johnson has since passed on to her reward from San Jose, Cal. Miss Gould, formerly of Kawaiahao Sem., now takes the place of matron.

The Beretania Settlement, or McKenzie Mission, is prospering, and rejoicing over the return of Mr. McKenzie, in apparent health.

The Palama Settlement has fitted up its playground with sand-pile, swings, tennis court and ball ground, besides a new open-air school-room. A new departure last summer was a fortnight's outing by the sea at Kaipapau for ailing mothers and little ones. Many Cousins (W. R. Castle, Dr. Baldwin, Ernest Clark and others) have helped on this enterprise.

Thanksgiving Day with its delicious dinner was a happy day for over 500 little folks of all nationalities, at the Kakaako Settlement.

The King's Daughters, in a very unique way, secured a beautiful Mother's Day memorial of $1000 as a part of the $20,000 needed for the King's Daughters' Home.

SCHOOLS.

During vacation the Normal School held a six weeks summer session, which was attended by 150 or more teachers. The Y. M. C. A. also held a six weeks summer school for boys, which was quite popular.

The Public Schools re-opened on Sep. 14, with H. W. Kinney as Superintendent of Public Instruction, an able Board of Trustees, and about 700 teachers. The new open-air school-houses have eased the congested condition of the school-rooms.

The College of Hawaii held its Commencement exercises on June 1st with four graduates. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Dr. Doremus Scudder. The new president, Arthur L. Dean, arrived in July, and on Sep. 2 a brilliant reception was given him at the University Club by the faculty, regents and Yale graduates.

The Kamehameha Schools held their Commencement exercises on the evening of June 4th, when an audience of 1000 or more people assembled on the illuminated lawn to see the 13 boys from the Preparatory Department, 21 girls from the Girls School, and 18 boys from the Manual Training School graduate. The morning and afternoon had been given over to an Industrial Exhibit. There were shown drawings, paperfolding, useful articles made in wood, and vegetables grown by the Preparatory boys; class-room work by the girls, dresses designed and made by them, cakes, candies, preserves, bread, roasted meats and salads; and by the Manual Training boys there were tables, bureaus, doors and cottages, painting, printing, piping, and electric-wiring, as well as an exhibit of vegetables, live-stock and various lines of dairy work.

With deepest regret the Kamehameha Schools have parted with their efficient President, Perley L. Horne, who, during the past ten years, has ruled so wisely and introduced so many improvements. In July a farewell reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Horne by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution of Honolulu. The loss by death of Miss Ida M. Pope, the beloved principal of the K. Girls' School, seemed little short of a calamity. Memorial services were held at the school and in Central Union Church. Also on the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Girls' School in December, most touching encomiums were passed upon her.

In November the Trustees tendered a brilliant reception to the new President, E. C. Webster, who arrived July 15th from New Haven, Conn., with his family.

Hilo Boarding School.—In April, 1914, an appropriation of $35.00 was made by this Society for a Hilo Boarding-School "work scholarship." This has been given to Philip Naone, a little boy in whom Mrs. W. W. Hall has been greatly interested. That the Cousins may understand this unique feature of the school we quote from the prospectus. "Each pupil of the Hilo Boarding School is expected to pay $35, and to give an additional three hours daily of honest labor for board during the year. This merely covers the board expense as the tuition is free. The applicant may be set to work either upon the school farm, in the domestic department, or in the school workshops. Any worthy Hawaiian boy who is willing to give an additional hour of work daily to cover his actual expenses, is allowed to enter as a Work Scholarship Boy, without the $35." "The Hilo Boarding School finds that this system has had an elevating effect on the lives of the boys." "A boy who is self-supporting has a self-respect which is wanting in the boy who is living off the bounty of his friends. Honest work has assumed a dignity in his eyes, since thereby he is able to procure for himself not only an education but the common necessities of life."

All success to this character-building school! We wish the Cousins could send a dozen boys instead of only one.

Maunaolu,—filled to its limit of 81 girls, has had a successful year. Miss Heusner says the school has never since her connection with it been so prosperous, as she is pleased with the work in all departments as well as with the general spirit and character of the girls, and adds, "I do think this country life is ideal for girls." There were eight graduates from the academic and two from the sewing department. The graduating dresses, carefully designed and made, were the girls' own handiwork. One innovation following Commencement exercises was a luau, planned and served in the play-house by the girls. An excellent operetta was rendered on the 6th of June.

One little story of Maunaolu, told briefly, beginning thirty years ago, singles out from the 100 interesting pupils, four girls, studious, industrious, and trustworthy. Later, these married, and though tempted and tried in many ways, remained true to the principles of Maunaolu. Recently, one died, and shortly before two others became widows, each the mother of a large family. One of them said, "I prayed God to remember the widow and the fatherless, and I thank God he heard my prayer and sent good friends in the time of need." As a part of the answer to that prayer, we love to think that the Father of the fatherless prompted our dear Mrs. Stangenwald to bequeath to the Cousins a legacy, the interest of which goes toward the education of Hawaiian children, and also pointed out the girls, and opened the way. The schools were full. There was no vacancy at Kawaiahao and but one at Kamehameha. As bright, interesting Helen Naone already had a sister at Kamehameha, she was received and welcomed at once. Miss Heusner kindly "made room" at Maunaolu for motherless Miriam Lane and dear little Mary Kaelo. Again Providence opened the way by sending, on a vacation to Honolulu, Miss 'ase, a Maunaolu teacher, who, on her return, on New Year's Eve, quite won the hearts of waiting friends by saying as she stepped aboard, "Where are my two little girls," and taking them by the hand to her room. The fourth Maunaolu mother said, as she looked at her own little girl who was "crying pitifully" to go, "They are lucky little girls." It is to be hoped that some way may be opened in September for Lulu to become a "Maunaolu girl."

Mid-Pacific commencement exercises for both departments were held at Mills School on June 9th. Eleven boys graduated from Mills High-School, and twenty from Mills Grammar Grades. There were also sixteen girl graduates from Kawaiahao Grammar. Preceding Commencement Day there was Kite-flying Day, Tree-planting Day, the Baccalaureate sermon preached by Dr. Ferguson, a calisthenic and acrobatic exhibition, and an industrial exhibit including commencement dresses made at an average cost of $1.50—a whole week of festivities.

The new term opened on Sep. 21st with Dr. Ferguson and Miss Boshier in charge of the two schools, and a full and enthusiastic band of teachers and pupils. A long waiting list also testifies to the popularity of the schools. The year has been an eventful one because of the semi-centennial anniversary of the founding of Kawaiahao Seminary. The celebration occurred on Nov. 28, and consisted of a pageant on the terraced grounds; a reception in the spacious hall to the first principal, Mrs. L. B. Coan, the present principal Miss Boshier, and a member of the first class, Mrs. Imhoff; and an alumnae-trustee banquet in the decorated dining-room. The grace and beauty of action in the "Spirit of Kawaiahao," the brilliant setting, the harmonious blending of dignity and gaiety among the 300 alumnae, patrons and trustees, with the valuable historical papers read, and the beautiful "Dream of the Future" given by Miss Boshier, are graphically told in thirteen pages of the Dec. "Friend" to which we refer all interested. At this meeting $10,000 was presented to Kawaiahao by Mrs. Juliette M. Atherton, $5,000 by Mrs. Anna Cooke, and $250 by pupils and trustees.

The sudden death of the president Dr. W. P. Ferguson on Jan. 5, came as an irreparable loss, not only to Mid-Pacific, but to Honolulu as well, and the text of Dr. Wadman's discourse at the funeral held in C. U. church, "know ye not that a prince and a great man has fallen in Israel this day," voiced the feelings of all who knew him.

Punahou.—On May Day, 1914, the students under Mrs. J. M. Cox gave a Greek play at the Pergola and Lily Pond. It consisted of scenes taken from Homer's Iliad and Odyssey, with Greek cos-tunes and dances. Later the dramatic club staged Shakespeare's "Love's Labor Lost." On June 20th, a class of twenty-eight received diplomas. The class presented the school with a large and handsome koa table and some chairs. Mr. P. C. Jones resigned as treasurer on July 14th, the fortieth anniversary of his election as trustee of Punahou. Later, W. H. Babbitt was elected as treasurer in his place. The new term began Sep. 8th with 200 pupils in the Academic department and 450 in the Preparatory School. In March the Punahou Mothers' Association was organized at the suggestion of Pres. Griffiths, that the homes and school may work together for the good of the boys and girls.

The Punahou campus, with its wide stretches of well-kept lawns, its feathery palms and flaming bougainvillea, lends itself so well to all dramatic scenes, that different parts of it were used during the Carnival week in February, for the Hawaiian Pageant, the Sho-Gun, and the great Peace Pageant. That Peace Pageant, written by J. A. Wilder and staged on Alexander Field with 1500 performers by "The Friend," was wonderful. The "assembling of the nations" as they wound down the paths of Rocky Hill and massed themselves on the terraces, the disappearing statue of "The Christ of the Andes," and the play itself with its costuming and acting were so impressive as to seem a prophetic realization of the time when "war shall be no more."

THE ROLL-CALL OF COUSINS.

The Family News, which is brought together in this roll-call might be greatly extended if all the Cousins would kindly volunteer to notify us of incidents and changes within their immediate knowledge.

Alexander (W. P.).—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dickey welcomed this year a new grandson, Charles Herbert Dole. A delightful reception was given on April 11, 1915, by Mrs. C. H. Dickey, for her sister, Mrs. Giulio Ferreri, here with her husband from Milan, Italy, after an absence of many years. Prof. and Mrs. Ferreri also visited Mrs. Baldwin, on Maui, and on Sep. 9th left for Rome by way of Philadelphia, Prof. Ferreri being a delegate to the International Child Culture Convention in that city. Mrs. Henry Alexander and others accompanied them to the Coast. On Mrs. Alexander's return in March she presented this society with a koa table, made long ago by Father Emerson. Miss Mary J. Alexander and Mrs. Helen Alexander are in Oakland. W. D. Alexander still writes from Arizona. DeWitt Alexander, second son of A. C. Alexander, entered Yale University this year, where his brother, Wm. P. Alexander, has been honored by an election to the Students Council of the Sheffield Science School, and was also chosen editor of the Yale News. He is the author of a Hawaiian play, 'Queen Kapiolani,' which was presented here in the opera house during Carnival week, and repeated in March.

Andrews (L.).—Wm. Andrews, under the firm name of Andrews Engineering Co., 120 Liberty St., N. Y., is prosecuting a money-making business in the metropolis, and is as jolly as ever, if we may judge by his last letter recalling "boyhood days when Sam Andrews, Allan Judd, John Paty, Billy Hall and myself used to go hunting the elusive ohia, and hear swarms of land-shells in the tops of trees and under the bushes."—Mr. Lorrin Andrews occupies a cottage at the seaside, his wife having returned from visiting relatives on the Coast.—Lorrin Jr. is at Punahou.—Mrs. Mary C. Nott wrote "I would love to be with you at the Annual Meeting in the old 'Cooke House.' I have spent many nights under its hospitable roof," and then follows a very amusing story of those "other days." She writes later, "Your kind invitation to be present at the gathering of the Cousins is accepted, for I shall be there and keep the day with you." She sends a lovely picture of herself—a contribution from her daughter, Annie Brigman. Pictures have since arrived from William Andrews and his wife Adele.—Carl B. Andrews is pushing out branches of the Oahu Railway into the pineapple district in the center of the island, and toward Fort Kamehameha, which is near the entrance of Pearl Harbor.

Andrews (S. L.).—Mrs. George P. Andrews and her daughter Winifred returned from their sojourn in Europe in Oct. 1913. They spent the winter of 1914 in Florida but in March, 1915, after a short illness, Mrs. Andrews passed away and Winifred made the sad trip with the casket to Detroit, where many friends met her. At present Miss Andrews is in Detroit.

Andrews (C. B.).—Miss Lucy Andrews sent in March pictures of herself and of two sisters, Mrs. Luella Kilbourne and Mrs. Florence Neal, also two pictures of Dr. Shepard, one of his son Lorrin, and one of his daughter Alice, wife of President Riggs of Harpoot college. She says: "I am sorry to send this picture of Dr. Shepard—it looks sick and sad. He is indeed a 'man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.' His wonderful sympathy and the breadth of his humanity bring a very heavy strain upon a nature which is naturally buoyant. Life is always living in his presence. . . . The support of the Aintab mission has been so inadequate that he has broken his health in trying to meet the financial deficit of educational and medical work. . . . You are quite safe in sending your moneys through the American Board, and I am gratified and grateful that you can send so much. . . . Lorrin Shepard is very much like his father and has the making of a good doctor. He is now studying medicine in New York City. Luella wishes to be remembered."

Armstrong (R.).—Mrs. E. A. Weaver and Miss Jennie Armstrong left Hampton in October and have spent a delightful winter in Washington, D. C., seeing sights, attending lectures and concerts and in seeing the "wheels (of Government) go round."—Mrs. S. C. Armstrong and Margaret are in New York City. Margaret is a student in the School of Philanthropy there. Her "field-work is among the negroes and singing in the Midnight Mission." From New York they will go to Camp Rocky-wold, Ashland, N. J.—Mr. Daniel Williams Armstrong is at the U. S. Military Academy, and is president of the Y. M. C. A. of Annapolis. He will soon graduate, and hopes to be detailed to the Pacific fleet and visit the home of his father's childhood.—Mrs. Henrietta Fangel is located at 509 W. 121st St., New York, opposite Whittier Hall, Columbia University, which suits her scholarly tastes. Sherman Armstrong Jones (legally adopted) is making a fine record in the Berkshire School, Sheffield, Mass., and his mother is in her charming home at Hudson. Mrs. Weaver and Miss Armstrong will soon leave Washington and go to Hudson by way of New York City, and future plans will depend upon climatic conditions, as Miss Armstrong has had a serious attack of asthma which has left her far from well.—Last Autumn, Mrs. Weaver sent a daguerreotype of her father taken by Dr. Stangenwald about 60 years ago—also the manuscript of the “Life of Richard Armstrong,” written by herself.—Miss A. Armstrong sent a beautiful photograph of Mrs. Banning, and Mrs. Weaver sent one of herself.

Bailey (E.).—Christmas greetings came from Miss Caroline Bailey and her parents in Grass Valley, California. We met on the car a few days since, a fine-looking young man named Charles Kai Bailey, a grandson of our late cousin Edward Bailey, and his only descendant bearing the name of Bailey. He is a deacon in the native Kalihi church, and president of its board of trustees. Mrs. James Bailey sent a small picture of Punahou, drawn by Miss Hattie Baldwin in the 60s, and photographed.

Baldwin (D.).—The death of Jared Knapp Baldwin, only son of Henry A. Baldwin of Hamakuapoko, was a sad blow to the family, and on Aug. 1st the father and mother took a trip to the Coast, taking with them their daughter Frances.—Mrs. H. P. Baldwin has sent us a fine picture of her husband, a very true likeness of Mrs. Abbie (Baldwin) Alexander, and a good picture of Rev. James Alexander.—The living representatives of the Baldwin families appear to be attending to business successfully, but thus far have sent no messages to the Cousins.—On Feb. 20, Puunene Mill, F. F. Baldwin manager, made a record output for seven days of 2601 tons of sugar—the largest ever made by any plantation in Hawaii. “The Memoir of Henry Perrine Baldwin,” by his son A. D. Baldwin of Cleveland, Ohio, has just reached us.

Bingham (H.).—Dr. Hiram Bingham made a visit to the home of his childhood in August, bringing with him his wife, three of his older boys, and the seventh son, Jonathan Brewster Bingham, born on Apr. 25, the day of the Cousins’ last annual meeting. Illness while here prevented him from seeing all his friends, but he recovered in time to deliver a lecture, subject “Peru,” on Aug. 21, before the University Club, the proceeds, $500, going toward the endowment of Leahi Home.—Mrs. Clara (Moseley) Sutherland is very happy in having three of her daughters here—Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mrs. Arlege and Miss Pearl Sutherland, a teacher at Punahou Academy. Mrs. Sutherland has so taken hold of church and mission work as to quite identify herself with Honolulu, and it is hoped she will make this her permanent home. The reception given Mrs.

Lydia Bingham Coan at the Old Mission Home, in honor of her eightieth Christmas birthday, was a delightful reunion, filled with surprises—such as Herr Berger with his band, and the birthday cake with its eighty lighted candles. The honors paid Mrs. Coan as first principal of Kawaiahao Seminary, at the fiftieth celebration of the founding of that school, were many.

Bishop (A.).—Mrs. Sereno Bishop—dear “Mother Bishop”—celebrated her 89th birthday on Jan. 12th, the birthday cake as usual being made by Mrs. A. C. Alexander. Many old friends carrying greetings found her in health, and in her own cheery spirit looking forward with pleasure to her ninetieth birthday, and to the family reunion to be held next summer when Jessie Shaw is expected home from Columbia College and Margaret from Mt. Holyoke College. Mother Bishop has since suffered an attack of pleurisy from which she has not yet fully recovered.

Bond (E.).—Mrs. Bicknell’s face, seen at every Sabbath morning service, seems to change not at all.—Mr. E. C. Bond has been in Wailuku most of the year.—In September, a little daughter, Madeline Eliot Bond, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond in San Francisco.—Miss Alice Bond is now a teacher at Maunaloa Seminary, Maui. Mr. Howell Bond is practicing law at Tesla, Ok.—The King’s Daughters of Kohala recently held a 25th anniversary or “silver wedding” reunion at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. D. Bond. Mrs. Bond and the Misses Bond served a delightful luncheon, the Kohala Seminary girls furnished the music, and papers were read by Miss Caroline Bond and Mrs. Hind, narrating a remarkable history of members, and of money given and good deeds accomplished.

Castle (S. N.).—W. R. Castle, chief organizer of the Belgian Relief Association in Honolulu, has sent off thousands of dollars to the war sufferers. He and his family are now in the States.—Mr. George P. Castle has also gone to New England.—Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt enjoyed their trip to Japan very much.—Miss Ethelwin Castle and sister returned safe from Europe, and Miss Castle is spending the winter with Mrs. Mead in Chicago.—W. R. Castle, Jr., made a summer vacation visit to Honolulu, seeing friends and homeland, and gathering material for his latest book.—Prof. and Mrs. Tozzer returned in May, having escaped unhurt from Mexico though occupying the hotel where the marines were quartered, the walls of which were riddled with bullets. Dr. Tozzer had made many researches in Mexico and Central America to further his studies of ancient civilizations, and secured a valuable collection of Aztec and other relics for Harvard Museum.—On Aug. 19th a little daughter, Alice, was welcomed in Mr. Harold Castle's family.—Mrs. Harriet C. Coleman presented the Society with "The Story of the Morning Star," a book of "Conversations on the Sandwich Island Mission," in which her mother had written, "For the Cousins"; also a drawing of the ship "Mary Frazier" with names of all passengers and crew. Quite recently she sent a life-like picture of Mrs. Mary Castle Hitchcock and herself.—The Castle Estate has presented to the Hawaiian Board a part of the Y. W. C. A. park, the old Kawaiahaeo Seminary grounds, for the Hawaiian Board's Memorial Centennial Building.

Chamberlain (L.).—The death of Mr. Warren Chamberlain, in Dec., meant the home-going of the oldest Cousin on these Islands, the oldest but one, living.—Mr. W. W. Chamberlain of the Guardian Trust Co., who has just been having a well-earned vacation, is greatly interested in the renovation of the Old Chamberlain House.—Mr. H. W. Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain are devoting all their energies to the new Union Church at Kalihi. A growing Bible-school and a live Christian Endeavor testify to their success, as well as new equipment—a new church building, new play-grounds, and last of all, a new parsonage which has just been completed.

Clark (E. W.).—Dr. Albert B. Clark, an active trustee of this Society, died on Sep. 30th in Hilo and is greatly missed.—Mr. and Mrs. L. Severance of Hilo spent the holidays in Honolulu, and Mrs. Severance remained through the winter, the guest of friends.—Benj. H. Austin, son of Herbert Clark Austin, a graduate of Cornell in 1912, was married at Phelps, N. Y., on Jan. 1, 1915, to Miss Lillian Peck, a 1914 graduate of Vassar College.—A little daughter, Dorothy Cooper Scott, was born in Hilo, July 22, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Scott, and in Hilo, to Mrs. Margaret Scott Hughes, was born a son, Richard Lyon Hughes, Jr.,—also very recently came Caroline Rose Sedgwick, daughter of Mrs. Katalena Clark Sedgwick.

Coan (T.).—T. Munson Coan, M. D., writes, "The Cousins' Report is the most interesting Annual that I receive. Is this really the sixty-second? I wonder how many remain of the original membership—we were 153 at the start in 1852. Are any of us growing old? Well, if I may quote some lines of my own in "The Century Magazine"

I heard them say the riper years are best—

I find it true;

But ah, they have one fault—

They are so few.

With sincere aloha, yours—Titus Munson Coan.” In answer to the question concerning the 153 original members, 52 are with us while 101 have gone to attend the greater reunion. Dr. Coan plans a visit to California during the Exposition and hopes to meet old Hawaiian friends there.—Mrs. Sarah Coan Waters has sent photographs of herself and her late husband.

Conde' (D. T.).—Rev. Samuel Conde', D. D., has responded to the invitation to the reunion by sending photographs of himself and Mrs. Conde'.

Cooke (A. S.).—The marriage on May 19th, 1914, of Mr. Theodore Cooke to Miss Muriel Howatt was a very beautiful ceremony performed in St. Andrew's cathedral. A trip to Europe followed, and they were fortunate to reach home in safety before the war began.—Three more Cookes have arrived during the year to swell the Cooke roll-call in April—one of these, however, will also be claimed by the rival family, Judd. Richard Atherton Cooke, Jr., came in May, Juliette Montague Guard in June, and Thomas Hastings Cooke in December.—Miss Kate Atherton's Kealoha Industrial Plant, for giving employment to girls, has proved a success, having about reached a self-supporting stage and is giving work to some thirty girls.—Mrs. Atherton accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Richards, to the Coast in Nov., and the Thanksgiving evening which members of three generations spent at “Aunt Patty Alexanders” was one long to be remembered by them. The three sisters—for “Aunt Mollie” (Mrs. Turner) lives in a cottage quite near—became reminiscent, talked of girlhood days, and told jokes on each other till the younger generations declared it well worth a trip across the sea to spend that one jolly Thanksgiving evening. Mrs. Richards, who had taken this trip for her health, found this merry meeting the best part of the prescription.—Ruth Richards spent her summer vacation in Honolulu. Atherton Richards has won honors at school.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atherton have visited the States during the year.—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cooke went to Japan, where they met Miss Margaret who had finished a year at Columbia College and was returning home by way of Europe and the Suez Canal. They traveled in the Philippines, in Japan and in China, and met some Cousins and other Honolulu people.—Mrs. J. M. Atherton's bountiful gift to Kawaiahao Seminary, and that of Mrs. C. M. Cooke, were among other recent deposits they have placed in the Bank of the Lord, which yields interest many times over its one-hundred per cent.

Damon (S. C.).—A little daughter, Dorothy, came to the home of F. B. Damon on Sep. 26.—Three months later little Chenery Giffard fell “asleep in the arms of Jesus.”—Cyril Damon, eldest son of F. W. Damon, is at Harvard. Miss Vera, after her trip to Europe, took a course in music at the Boston Conservatory, and arrived home in Jan. 1915.—Bernard Damon will graduate from Punahou Academy this year.

Dibble (S.).—Mrs. Grace P. Haven is in the States on a year’s leave of absence from Maunaolu Seminary, and is taking work in the Hartford School of Religious Pedagogy.

Dimond (H.).—The death of Mrs. Stangenwald in August removed one of the early and devoted members of this Society. She left a lasting token of remembrance in form of a legacy to be used in the education of Hawaiian children.—Mrs. Eleanor Waterhouse Wood, in disposing of “Aunt Annie’s” property, contributed to the Cousins Dr. Stangenwald’s large book-case; a table; a what-not; framed fancy work in shells, leather, hair and wax, made by the Dimond girls; two glass vases and two Louis XIV vases; a mission album and two native books; dishes belonging to Father and Mother Dimond and often loaned by them to the Fort Street Church socials; a beautiful photograph of Mary Dimond and one of Henry Dimond and his wife; also a number of photographs yet to come by the hand of W. R. Castle.—Mrs. Wood’s stay in Honolulu was very short. Her sister, Mrs. Corbett, was in very poor health.—Miss Lucy Dimond was married in May, 1914, to Mr. Rideau G. Ross, and lives in Honolulu.

Dole (D.).—Judge Sanford B. Dole, who has always done so much for the Associated Charities, has of late been working with others to place the Association upon a firmer basis.—Mrs. Dole, declining re-election to the presidency of the Hawaiian Humane Society, a position she has held since its organization, has been retained as Honorary President.—In July, Miss Clara Dole of Riverside, Calif., with some Rowell cousins, visited in Honolulu and on Kauai.—There have been four children born into the Dole family this year—Margery Dole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ethelbert Dole, in April, Alfred Rust Dole, son of Alfred Rowell Dole, in August, Sanford Ballard Dole, son of S. B. Dole, Jr., in December, and Charles Herbert Dole, son of James D. Dole—the latter, however, properly belongs among the Alexanders.

Emerson (J. S.).—Dr. N. B. Emerson’s new book, “The Myth of Pele and Iiiaika”, is now in type, and all will be glad to read it. Dr. Emerson has spent much time and care in research of this kind.—Mrs. J. S. Emerson, whose home was once in Belgium, gave a very interesting lecture on Bruges, and in other ways raised quite a fund for the war sufferers. She has also been collecting Red Cross supplies, which are sent direct to the hospital where her sisters are nursing the wounded.—We have just received from Dr. Justin Emerson excellent pictures of himself and Mrs. Emerson. Mrs. Emerson writes, "Few things would give Dr. Emerson and myself greater pleasure than to attend the annual meeting of the Cousins on Apr. 24, but, alas, an ocean rolls between. We shall have to be content with the recollection of our beautiful time last year. We are rejoicing in the thought that our photographs are desired, and have sent them forward to greet the "sisters, cousins and aunts,"—and the grandchildren! Greetings to you all—children of a happier land.

Forbes (C.)—General Theodore Forbes resides in Washington City, and when last we heard was in excellent health.—W. J. Forbes and family are now living in their own home on Wilder St. Their summer vacation was spent at Pearl Harbor Peninsula. While there Mrs. Forbes invited the Woman's Society of C. U. Church to picnic on the Forbes grounds and many enjoyed the rare treat. Miss Maria and Miss Harriet Forbes remain in the Punahou home.

Green (J. S.)—Hon. W. W. Thayer, Secretary of the Territory, and Mrs. (Rhoda Green) Thayer, spent January at the Coast, where Mr. Thayer was sent to help open the Hawaiian exhibit at the Exposition.—Our dear Laura Green has been a shut-in all the year. She who ministered so efficiently to others finds it very hard to be waited upon, and the long nights of pain have been very lonely except as the Comforter came to strengthen and sustain. She has lately had new pictures of her fine-looking nephew, Franklin C. Green, and his young wife. His brother Walter was married in July, 1913, and sends a photograph of a sturdy-looking Walter Perry Green, Jr. He was born on June 12, 1914.—Laura's niece and namesake, Laura Green, was also married recently.

Gulick (P. J.)—Rev. O. H. Gulick has been devoting himself assiduously to literary work. Mr. and Mrs. Gulick, and Miss Julia attended the meeting of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association at Wailuku in July, and lodged in the Wm. and Mary Alexander Home, where Mrs. Gulick, as Ann Eliza Clark, lived when a child, and where her sister, Mrs. Lucinda Clark Severance, and brother, Albert B. Clark, were born.—Dr. John T. Gulick and his wife are making a protracted visit at Paradise, Cal., with their daughter and her husband, Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Whitaker.—Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, already highly honored by the rulers of Japan, is adding to his usefulness and fame by active work on both sides of the Pacific Ocean for a better political understanding between Japan and the United States. While on this business he has passed through Honolulu twice, addressing large crowds in various places.

Hall (E. O.).—Mr. Philip Hall has been visiting in Honolulu, to the great joy of his music-loving friends.—Mr. Seymour Hall had the novel experience of crossing San Francisco bay in a hydroplane.—Mrs. Florence Hall Macintyre has a new little daughter, Margery. Mrs. Macintyre is happy in having her mother, Mrs. W. W. Hall, and her sister, Miss Charlotte, so near her home.—Mr. P. C. Jones, on July 14th, after twenty years as treasurer of Punahou Academy and forty years as trustee, resigned his position, thus dropping the last of his many cares and responsibilities. He is looking quite well.

Hitchcock (H. R.).—Mrs. Mary Hitchcock of Hilo made a visit in Honolulu, and was greatly interested in the old books and pictures at the Old Mission Home.—Wm. Hitchcock is following the example of his brothers at Harvard and winning honors in athletics.—His brother Rexford, we hear, has joined the Red Cross corps and gone to Europe. D. Howard Hitchcock has been exhibiting some very fine new paintings of Island scenes.

Hyde (C. M.).—Mrs. C. M. Hyde writes that she still has work to do in helping to care for her little granddaughters. She had been to visit Mr. George Ii Brown and his interesting wife. She had also visited Miss Carpenter's grave. She would like to come again to Hawaii nei, but her son Henry, who enjoyed immensely his trip to the Islands, thinks the climate up Nuuanu Valley too damp for her.—We are glad that the long lawsuit over Mrs. Irene Ii Holloway's estate has been settled in her favor.

Ives (M.).—Harlan Page Ives, who used to live in the Old Mission Home, who last year celebrated his golden wedding, and whose picture we failed to publish only from lack of funds, writes us again, giving the location of his nine children—all living. William Harlan Ives, No. 17 Elm Grove, South Norwalk, Conn., is with the Crofut Hat Co.—Joseph Mark Ives is in the leather-stitching business in Danbury, Conn.—Robert Allyn, formerly living in Taunton, Mass., is now connected with a cutting and making department of union underwear, at Athens, N. Y.—Charles Gulick Ives is in Norwalk, Conn. He has for twenty years been organist and choir director in the Norwalk M. E. Church.—The daughters Mary Brainerd and Harriet Evelyn are at home with their father and mother.—The 5th son is with the N. M. Hat Co. in New Milford.—The 3rd daughter, Helen Vaill (Mrs. F. H. Bennett) is now in Rhinebeck, N. Y., Mr. B. being principal of the High School in that village.—The 6th son is with the Green Garage Co. of Danbury, Conn.—All are well, and interested in the doings of all Cousins. We have just heard of the death of Mrs. Joseph Ives on March 4. She was an invalid for 30 years.

Johnson (E.).—On Jan. 1, 1915, Mrs. "Lizzie" Johnson Williams, of Twin Lakes, Calif., passed on to the better land. Her sister, Mrs. Julia Johnson Fyfe, who had been with her during the last years of her life, will now, probably, make her home with her children. Her son, Douglas Fyfe, has invited her to come to his home at Pearl City, and another son, Harold, has removed to a larger house in San Francisco, that his mother may reside with him.—Miss B. Frances Bindt expects to visit the Exposition during vacation, and would gladly take her aunt Frances Johnson with her if the way could be made plain.—Miss Johnson has been very ill, but seems to have quite recovered.—Willie Bindt, son of P. Rudolph Bindt, who has for two years been a pupil in the school for the blind in Berkeley, spent the summer vacation at home. He says he was kept very busy with his music, typewriting, and basket and hammock making, but was happy there.

Judd (G. P.).—Miss Helen Wilder spent the winter with her mother. Mrs. Laura Wight and daughter Ella are said to be working as Red Cross nurses in Berlin. Leslie and her husband are in Norway. Wilder Wight is in Oakland, Sam Wight at Riverside, Cal., and Frank Wight, his wife and two little boys are enjoying their new bungalow on Liholiho street.—Mr. G. P. Wilder has taken in charge the beautification of the Old Mission grounds.—Mrs. Swanzy, among other enterprises, has been active in the anti-tuberculosis campaign.—Miss Emily Farley has returned to the States.—G. R. Carter and family spent the winter in the Eastern States, returning in March. Since then they have motored around Hawaii, visiting the "Plymouth Rock of Hawaii" where the missionaries first stepped ashore, the ruins of the old Thurston home, where they were looking for relics, and the "heiau."—Mr. and Mrs. Sherman are enjoying their new palatial home up Nuuanu Valley.—Dickson Nott is at Williams College.—Henry and Grace Carter, son and daughter of the late Charles L. Carter, spent their vacation in Honolulu, and with Elizabeth and Phoebe Carter, daughters of G. R. Carter, Jack and Carter Galt, and other cousins, there were jolly times.—Mrs. A. H. B. Judd sent to the Cousins Society a framed certificate of stock in the first Morning Star. Mrs. Judd is rejoicing in the arrival of another grandson, Thomas Hastings Cooke. At a Y. W. C. A. States Banquet, in Jan., a cake was set before Mrs. Judd having on it seventy lighted candles.—Rev. Henry Judd, wife and son, returned from their six months' visit on the mainland in October, and early in Nov. he conducted a Bible-school Teachers' Association of great merit.—On Jan. 1st, Charles Judd and wife arrived in Honolulu, he having assumed the duties of Forester.

Kinney (H.).—Mr. H. W. Kinney, formerly editor of the Hilo Tribune, was appointed Superintendent of Public Instruction about a year ago, and has established a record for economy and efficiency. His mother, Mrs. Selma S. Kinney, who has been instructor in languages, French and German, for the McKinley High School, resigned her position at the Easter vacation, and will reside with her son.

Lyman (D. B.).—David B. Lyman, who, after forty years' absence, made a delightful visit to the Islands in 1910, died in Chicago in April.—Photographs of David B. Lyman, Dr. Henry Lyman and Mr. Rufus A. Lyman with their sister Mrs. Emma Lyman Wilcox, were given the Society by Mrs. Wilcox, and pictures of Judge F. S. Lyman and Mrs. Lyman were sent by their daughter, Miss Ellen Lyman.—It is a real pleasure to know that the three Lyman brothers, sons of Rufus A. Lyman, are still stationed on Hawaii, as our country's defenders. Their sister, Mrs. Sarah Lyman Ried, has a little son, James Lyman Ried.

Lyons (L.).—Rev. Curtis Jere Lyons passed on to the heavenly mansions in September, thus releasing a mind of exceptional ability and a spirit attuned to the slightest vibrations of moral righteousness from a body too frail to rise to its normal plane.—The health of Dr. J. B. Lyons is said to have improved greatly. His daughter, Miss Lucia, is still at home with her parents.—Mr. Hay, husband of the late "Lizzie" Lyons Hay, made a visit to Hawaii recently. In November, nearly two months after her brother's death, Miss Fidelia Lyons also went to her heavenly home, and her body was laid at rest in the hallowed mission cemetery at Kawaiahao.

Paris (J. D.).—Miss Anna Paris has given to the Society three quaint little pictures—one a Madonna-like picture of herself, a tiny tin-type of Annie Alexander, and a group of four young girls—Emma Smith, Anna Paris, Louisa Johnson and Annie Alexander.—Mr. James R. Paris resides at Pearl City.

Parker (B. W.).—Rev. H. H. Parker has been appointed as the compiler of the new Hawaiian dictionary. No better man could be selected, as he has been using the Hawaiian language all his life, in talking with the natives themselves, as well as in writing and thinking in that language. Mr. Parker still continues as pastor of the Kawaiahao church, filling the pulpit he has occupied for over fifty years.

Rice (W. H.).—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde Rice have sent excellent photographs of themselves, and through them Mrs. Hans Isenberg has sent a beautiful, quaint little picture of her mother and her mother's sister Mary Rice, taken together as young girls. Rev. Hans Isenberg has been preaching in the Lutheran church of Honolulu, once a month, between the pastorates of that church.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rice are in Chicago, where the former is taking a law course at the University.—At Hilo, Hawaii, there was born on Nov. 25, 1914, to Emily Rice Sexton, wife of Dr. L. L. Sexton, a son, Harold Miller Sexton.—Mary Rice Scott is contemplating a visit to her old home in Lihue, bringing her four little daughters to spend the summer vacation.—The death of Mr. Paul De La Vergne was not unexpected, as he had been ill for many months.—His father, Col. George De La Vergne, made a short trip to Honolulu in March with his little granddaughter, and has promised a photograph of Mrs. De La Vergne and one of himself.

Richards (W.).—A letter and splendid photograph have been received from our oldest living cousin, Mrs. Harriet Richards Clark. She says, "I am the only surviving child of Rev. Wm. Richards who went out to the Islands in the first reinforcement in the early twenties. I was born at Lahaina in 1829 and am eighty-six years old—have been an invalid for several years, but I read with interest the reports of the Association, and am in sympathy with the work you are trying to do among the various races now living in the Islands. May you have good success, and continue to do good work for many years. Very affectionately, Harriet R. Clark."

A letter also came from Mrs. L. R. Williston thanking us for the invitation to the Cousins' meeting and sending a photograph of her late husband, "Levi Lyman Richards" (adopted Williston) "taken many years ago, as he has been away from us eighteen years—yesterday."

Rogers (E. H.).—Mr. Wm. Harvey Rogers died in Oakland on May 17, 1914, after a long illness.—His nephew, Edmund H. Rogers of West Concord, N. H., who is in the electrical business, contemplates adding practical agriculture to his duties and is looking for a farm near by.—His sister, Miss Kate Rogers, was married in 1913, to Mr. Seymour Barnes, and recently, his half-sister, Miss Zelig Rogers, was married to Mr. J. Pia Cockett, principal of the Kihei school, Kihei, Maui.—Mrs. Cockett's sister, Lizzie Rogers Sommerfield, lives in Wailuku, Maui.—Miss Eva Sunter is happy in her country school on Oahu, and has been looking forward to a vacation on the Coast, where her father, brother, and sister Mabel reside.

Rowell (G. B.).—Mr. William Rowell had his face wreathed in smiles this summer because of a visit from his nieces, Miss Clara Dole of Riverside, Cal., and Misses Olive and Dorothy Rowell with their aunt Miss Rowell from Brooklyn, N. Y.—Miss Dorothy was so pleased with the Islands that she soon returned to Honolulu, where her winning ways have already won for her many friends. The Misses Olive and Dorothy have become welcome members of this Society.—Mr. Leslie Rowell Gay and Margaret Gay, who were married in 1910, have a little son, Francis Sinclair Gay, born June 21st, 1913. His brother Philip was born March 1st, 1912.—There have been four weddings in the Rowell family during the year, that of Jennie Sinclair Gay to Mr. Elsworth Rogers on April 15th, 1914, Ruth Leslie Rowell to Mr. Augustus M. Sanborn on July 7th, 1914, Miss Ethel Eliza Gay to Mr. Chester Sumner on July 21st and Mr. Herbert Rowell Stolz of Stanford University to Miss Margaret Post on Aug. 8th, 1914.

Ruggles (S.).—Spending the winter in Honolulu were Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lewis of Janesville, Wisconsin. They were here for a short visit two years ago, and now they are so pleased with the climate they talk of buying a home here for a winter residence.—Mrs. Lewis is a cousin of Missionary Ruggles, and has seen and talked with Mother Ruggles.

Smith (L.).—Mr. B. F. Dillingham, after a quarter of a century of active and strenuous work in organizing, directing and watching every detail in the development of the Oahu Railway & Land Co., has resigned as General Manager, though retaining his interest in the company, and acting as its vice-president.—Mrs. Dillingham, while retaining her position in the Woman's Board of Missions as treasurer since its organization, has this year been its acting president. — Mr. Erdman is supervisor of the Hawaiian Evangelical churches on Oahu, and also gives daily lessons in Bible study at Mills School. Mrs. Erdman is busy in church work, and Mrs. Frear is active in advancing the causes of Child Welfare Legislation, Medical Examination of School Children, a new Y. W. C. A. building, and other branches of Civic Betterment.

Smith (J. W.).—Wedding bells pealed once this year in the Smith family when Miss Dorothy Hartwell became the bride of Dr. Ferdinand F. Hedemann, on June 3rd, 1914.—Two maidens fair have come to swell the genealogical record—a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin K. Smith, Eunice Kathrine, born on Jan. 8, 1915, and on March 11 Charlotte Elizabeth Sorenson, born to Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Sorenson. But almost before the joy-bells cease to ring, sad tears are falling and hearts ache over the death of young Jared Knapp Baldwin, only son of H. A. Baldwin and Ethel Smith Baldwin of Hamakuapoko, Maui.—Mr. Clarence Smith and wife have had a series of adventures. When the war broke out they were residing near Paris, France, and through many difficulties they returned to their villa near Rome, only to experience the horrors of the terrible earthquake, and then to live in constant fear that Italy will be drawn into the great war.—Mr. W. O. Smith has presented the Cousins with photographs of all but one of the sons and daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith.

Thurston (A.).—Dr. Asa Thurston, son of Thomas Thurston, was married on Thursday, Aug. 30th, 1914, at Taylorsville, N. C., to Miss Jenna Echerd.—Miss Lucy Viele Thurston, sister of Dr. Asa Thurston, was married on Nov. 27, 1914, to Mr. C. T. McNeely, of Mooresville, N. C. Mr. McNeely is a cashier in one of the banks in that city. They took their wedding trip to Cuba.—Mrs. Clara Benfield Smith, in a letter to Mrs. Mary Kluegel, spoke of the Christmas-tide spent with cousins of Mrs. Emma Smith Dillingham, just out of Boston, and of the wonderful fireplace piled high with huge logs, while outside trees and shrubbery were covered with beautiful snow. What a picture to be hung against a background of our mild Hawaiian winters!—The Taylors, Winnes, Kluegels and Thurstons of the Islands are well. Margaret Thurston returned from Dana Hall for her summer vacation, while her Christmas holidays were spent in Iowa with her cousin.

Tinker (R.).—Mrs. Mary Tinker Harvey has sent photographs of her father, mother and all their children.—Samuel Hubbard Tinker, oldest of the seven Tinker children, born in the Castle House, Honolulu, Aug. 14, 1831, was unmarried and died at the age of 52 years.—Sarah H. Tinker, who became the wife of Mr. Robert Gray, was born in the Castle House, Honolulu, Sep. 18, 1834, and died in April, 1912, at the age of 78 years.—Joseph Emerson Tinker's photograph was taken at four-score. He was born in the Castle House Jan. 20, 1833. He sends also a picture of his sainted wife.—Robert Hall Tinker, the youngest son of Reuben and Mary Tinker, was also born in the Castle House Dec. 31, 1836. He is living in Rockford, Ill., where he has been for many years. We have a picture of his first wife.—Mrs. Mary Wood (Tinker) Harvey was born Jan. 23, 1839, in Koloa, Kauai, and sends her photograph and that of her late husband, Leon F. Harvey, M. D.—Mrs. Abbie Marina Tinker Purdon was born at sea on their return voyage, April 18th, 1841, married to Rev. Henry Purdon, Oct. 13, 1869, and lived at Titusville, Penn., until her death, Nov. 18th, 1907. Rev. Purdon's picture also accompanies that of his wife.—The seventh and youngest of the Tinker children was Charlotte Elizabeth Tinker, who married Dr. George Moody and died March 26, 1871. "She was so blithe, so bonnie and so good."—Mrs. Harvey writes "Joseph, Robert and I will be with the Cousinhood in spirit on that glorious 24th. I am sure it will be a remarkable meeting. Many thoughts will be turned to those whom 'we have loved long since and lost awhile.' Joseph, Robert and Mary send 'aloha'."

Van Duzee (W. S.).—Last year Miss Grace G. Van Duzee sent a small kodak picture of her sister Mary, taken in her own room in Urumia, Persia, where she was a missionary for over thirty years. Miss Mary's friends are very glad now in these troublous times that she is safe in the United States.—Recently Miss Grace sent a photograph of herself, one of Miss Cyrene Van Duzee, also a missionary in Turkey for many years, one of her only brother, Dr. Theodore W. Van Duzee, and one of her youngest sister, Mrs. Lillian A. Van Duzee Kidder.

Wetmore (C. H.).—

Whitney (S.).—No late news has come to us during the year from either the Wetmore or Whitney families. Items of news are welcome at any time.

Wilcox (A.).—The news of the death of Mrs. Edward P. Wilcox in October was received with sorrow. She made her first and only visit to Hawaii in 1905, and attended the Cousins' Meeting in C. R. Bishop Hall on April 20, just ten years ago.—Mrs. S. W. Wilcox was the first to respond to the call for photographs and sent a fine collection—Mr. G. N. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilcox and Mr. Henry Wilcox; Mr. David Lyman, Mr. Henry Lyman and Mr. Rufus Lyman. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilcox have welcomed another little granddaughter, Margaret Lois Wilcox, daughter of Charles H. and Marion Waterhouse Wilcox, who was born on Jan. 21, 1915.—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox have recently donated $25,000 for a tuberculosis sanitarium on Kauai in memory of their son Samuel Mahelona who died in 1912.—An interesting bit of Kauai news that has recently come to our ears may well be inserted here. It relates to a Historical Society of Kauai with Wm. Hyde Rice as its president, Miss Elsie Wilcox, secretary, and Rev. J. M. Lydgate as promoter, L. A. Dickey being appointed to prepare the first paper.

Bates.—On May 15th, we were greatly pleased to receive a call from George W. Bates and his sister Laura, son and daughter of Dudley C. Bates who, with brothers and sisters, lived in Nuuanu Valley during the 50's and 60's.—Dr. Dudley Smith, son of Lucilla Bates Smith, in honor of his mother, celebrated his birthday Dec. 31 by entertaining a company of old ladies at a brilliant dinner given at "The Oakland," where they watched the Old Year out and the New Year in.

Beckwith.—Miss Martha Beckwith has returned to Brooklyn. Her year on Hawaii did her good, enabling her to drop all Vassar dignity and as Martha Beckwith revel in the old freedom, restful climate and beautiful scenery of Hawaii. Through some of her home letters we have visited with her mother, and accompanied her sister Mary to the "School of Philanthropy" in New York, visited the "Children's Court" where she "grew limp" listening to the "Cry of the Children," attended a Social Welfare service in a factory where 2000 girls and 1000 men were employed; went with her to Recreation Parks where were gymnasiums, baths and libraries planned for the children; the Open Air school and Social Center Settlement Work, and last of all to the Berkshire Industrial Farm.—We received Christmas greetings from Mrs. Harriet Beckwith, and a programme of the Commencement Concert of the Virginia Inter-mont College from Prof. Maurice Beckwith, brother of the late Mrs. "Neeley Damon."

Bishop.—The ninety-third anniversary of the birth of C. R. Bishop was celebrated at Punahou, President Griffiths telling of his life, character and benefactions, and sending, with the trustees, teachers and pupils, congratulatory messages to this esteemed friend of Hawaii.

Bowen.—Mr. W. Spencer Bowen, in charge of Associated Charities this year, has inaugurated many improvements, has secured the aid of specialists, and keeps before the people the need of legislation to control labor, and systematic helping of the needy.

Birnie.—Rev. and Mrs. D. P. Birnie, having come into the inheritance of a fortune, have located in Washington City, where they are doing good service for The Right as they have opportunity.

Mrs. Frances A. L. Church, having rented her home in Oberlin, Ohio, for the college year, spent three months of the winter with relatives in N. Y., and is now with her oldest son, who was born in Honolulu in 1868. She expected soon to visit her second son, also born in Honolulu in 1870, now living in Newark, Ohio. She assures the Cousins that her interest never flags, and she hopes to receive the Annual Report as long as she lives.

Coleman.—Mr. H. E. Coleman, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A., with Mrs. Coleman and their little son, spent a week in Honolulu, on their way from Japan to Philadelphia, where Mr. Coleman will remain for study, while Mrs. Coleman will spend the winter with her parents in Eustace, Fla.

Gilman.—Mrs. J. A. Gilman and daughter have been on the Coast for some months. Shortly before Christmas, young Arthur F. Gilman and his charming fiancée, Miss Adene Winter, took an automobile trip to Waialua, were married, returned next day to Honolulu, where they had planned for "Love in a cottage," but were, instead, received into the loving arms and home of a forgiving father, "and were happy ever after."

Gulick.—Mrs. Sarepta Gulick entertained a large number of old friends on Dec. 22nd, the fiftieth anniversary of her landing as a bride in Honolulu.

Higgins.—Mrs. McCully-Higgins was a welcome guest in Honolulu during the holidays and the February carnival.

Hopper.—Miss Margaret Hopper returned in September after some months spent in Japan.—Miss Bessie Hopper was married in August to Mr. James H. Bowman.

Lowrey.—Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, head of the Outdoor Circle, by such things as the removal of fences and bill-boards, the planting of trees, etc., is arousing much interest in "The City Beautiful."

Mrs. Frances S. Loomis writes from Madison, Wis., that her son Edward, who has taught in Bowdoin College for three years, went to Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., in Sep. to take charge of the Physical Chemistry. Her daughter Louise Christison lives at Ripon, Wis., where Mrs. Loomis is booked to speak upon "The Early Days of the Hawaiian Mission." The Christison boys, triplets, are almost as tall as their grandmother—"and such fine little fellows." Mrs. Loomis and son expect to spend the summer in Maine.

W. C. Merritt, for seven years principal of Oahu College, writes as Extension Secretary of Pomona College, Claremont, Calif. He does not want any of his friends to think or feel that he is passing out of their lives, but wishes that all may be workers together along the new lines. He says, "I long to help in strengthening and enriching the lives of young people that they may realize in themselves 'the life more abundant'."

ands to spend a much-needed six months' vacation with their children in the states. After crossing the ocean, and the West as far as the high lands of Arizona, they found the chariot of the Lord ready to convey the soul of this good man to "the rest prepared for the children of God." Mrs. Oleson was helped by stranger friends till her own arrived to accompany her on her lonely way.—Ten months before, a little granddaughter, Mary Zabruskie Oleson, had been called to the heavenly home and, it may be, met the freed spirit outside the gates of pearl.

Paulding.—Miss Christina Paulding, former principal at Kawaiaha-o, is now a missionary among the Indians at Kamiah, Idaho. She tells of a mild winter with snow for several weeks and the mercury some mornings near zero, of March wild-flowers, spring-beauties, dutchman's breeches, dog-tooth violets and trillium, and says, "My work takes me out into the country. I tramp across country and into the woods. I walked over six miles one afternoon last week and nearly five the next day. I have a good saddle-horse for long trips but if it isn't too far I prefer my own feet. My work has been extended this year. I go about fifteen miles up the river, stopping at Indian houses here and there along the way. I stay over night at the little town of Stites. I carry some extra clothing in a pack tied to the back of my saddle, and hang a bag containing a few drugs and sometimes a lunch on the pommel. I rather enjoy these trips."

Severance.—Claude Milton Severance, minister of Mt. Pleasant Church, Pleasantville, Atlantic Co., N. J., writes a breezy letter of ocean views, and climate trying to the throat in winter, of the Spirit of God in the little mission church and 36 new members since their arrival in Nov. 1914, of his wife's singing, and the well-drilled choir, and of his lectures on Japan. He says he has had a vocabulary of 5000 words in Japan and wonders if he would not be a good investment for some company as an interpreter or "go-between." He often thinks he would like to return to the Islands, and sends best wishes to all old friends.

Simpson.—Miss Margaret Simpson has resigned her position of district visitor of the Associated Charities in Washington, D. C., and will go back to her West Virginia home.

Thrum.—Mr. T. G. Thrum has been appointed by the directors of the Bishop Museum to the task of compiling a history of the mythology of Hawaii and its people.

Van Slyke.—Prof. and Mrs. Van Slyke have been revisiting Honolulu and Punahou, the scene of their labors in the eighties. Their son accompanied them and he and his mother were heard in some charming duets. Mrs. Van Slyke, as Mrs. Hanford, was leading soprano in Fort Street choir. The Alumni Association of Punahou gave them a reception on March 8th.

Waterhouse.—Mrs. Elizabeth Waterhouse is rejoicing in the arrival this year of two more granddaughters, Dora Eleanor Isenberg and Lois Margaret Wilcox.—Dr. Ernest Waterhouse spent the winter in Honolulu and is now on his way to join his wife in Siam.

Whitney.—At the thirtieth anniversary of the W. C. T. U. in August, Mrs. J. M. Whitney was re-elected president, (a position she has ably filled during all these years), Mrs. W. C. Weedon vice-president and Mrs. L. B. Coan treasurer. Mrs. Whitney has written a pamphlet giving the history of Temperance in Hawaii since 1802, and appeals for laws that will close forever the source of the evils of intemperance.

OBITUARIES.

The "Reaper" in his "harvest home" this year has garnered richly of ripened sheaves, taking of the first generation of Cousins eighteen members. Two also of the second generation, and two little ones of the third were gathered home.

Dr. Albert Barnes Clark died in Hilo, Hawaii, June 30, 1914.

Albert B. Clark, born at Wailuku, Maui, July 7, 1845, was the son of Rev. E. W. Clark and the youngest of eight children. After completing his course at Punahou school, 1863, he spent five years with his brother-in-law, S. L. Austin, conducting and developing the Onomea sugar plantation. Leaving Onomea in 1868 he went to Chicago, studied dentistry and entered upon his life's career as a successful dentist. While in Chicago he was president of both the Illinois State Dental Society and the Chicago Dental Society. He served as elder in the Third Presbyterian church of Chicago for twelve or more years, being a faithful and efficient co-laborer with the pastor. He married, in 1872, Miss Sara Hamlin, with whom he spent about forty years of happy married life. In 1901 he returned with his family to Hawaii, settling in Honolulu.

From this time Dr. Clark entered with heart and soul into the life of the Cousins' Society. He knew what the Society meant to the absent Cousins, and he had a vision of what it should mean to the descendants here when once they had for it a home of its own, a place in which to store their precious reports and mementoes of the early days. He felt that the descendants owe it to Fathers and Mothers to have such a home, and when he was made president of the Society he worked to this end. Possessed as he was with a bright, cheerful disposition and unusual conversational powers, he led in the transformation of the Cousins' Society into a memorial society. He was instrumental in having the Recorder's office created, and the Missionaries' Record of Genealogies begun. The "Big Book" was the darling of his heart, and shortly before he left us, he said while turning the leaves with loving hands, "This is a book of inestimable value." No one was more pleased than he over the gift to the Society of the Old Mission Home, from our esteemed cousin, C. M. Cooke, and he never gave up the idea of owning the Chamberlain House. When that, too, came as a gift, from the Cooke brothers, his energies were directed to its refitting for the uses of the Society. The placing of the Society under the management of the younger generation was another plan whose accomplishment he labored for, and the splendid efficiency of these younger members as officers seemed to inspire in him great confidence in the success of its future.

Dr. Clark's beloved wife was laid to rest in 1908, but he leaves behind him a son, two daughters with their families, and three sisters, to mourn his loss.

Warren Chamberlain died at the home of his son W. W. Chamberlain, on Dec. 9, 1914, aged eighty-five years, and his body was laid to rest in Kawaiahao cemetery after a beautiful service conducted by Rev. A. A. Ebersole in the old stone church.

Warren Chamberlain was born July 17, 1829, in a grass house in Honolulu, and in April of 1832 moved with his parents into the large coral house now called the Chamberlain House. He was the eldest son of Levi Chamberlain, Secular Agent of the Hawaiian Mission, and in 1836, at the age of seven years, he and a younger brother were sent in a whaling ship around Cape Horn to New London, Conn. In 1841 he entered Williston Seminary, East Hampton, at its commencement, which school he attended for some years. Probably early approaching deafness influenced him in the choice of a course in agriculture, and he returned to Hawaii in 1850 an educated farmer. He bought land in Waialua and engaged in agriculture and grazing till 1867, being the pioneer sugar planter there. After leaving Waialua he was Superintendent of Grounds at Punahou, taking charge of the boys in their outdoor lessons, as Mr. Rice, his predecessor, had done. In 1870 he entered the Statistical Bureau of the Custom House in Honolulu, where he served faithfully for thirty years, retiring in 1900, at the age of seventy-one years.

He was married in 1854 to Miss Celia P. Wright, a devoted wife who preceded him to the better land in 1907. He was a good husband, a kind and loving father and a true, unselfish friend. He was a charter member of the 2nd Foreign Church, afterward called Fort St. Church, organized in 1851, and in 1866 was one of a committee of five to petition for a charter for Central Union Church. He was one of the original members of the Cousins' Society, contributed to the Maile Wreath, and in his eighty-first year wrote for the Annual Report of 1910 a very valuable paper entitled, "Incidents and remembrances connected with the Chamberlain House."

David Brainard Lyman died in Chicago, Ill., April 8, 1914.

David Brainard Lyman was born in Hilo, Hawaii, March 27, 1840. He attended Punahou school from 1852-1859. In 1860 he went to "The States" and was at the front in the Civil War, for a time, as agent of the Sanitary Commission. In 1865 he was studying law in Cambridge, Mass. He married, in 1870, Miss Mary Cossett, with whom there existed a thorough understanding and bond of sympathy, and who accompanied him on his only and delightful visit to his island home in 1910, fifty years after he left it.

Mr. Lyman practiced law in Chicago, but built a home in the suburbs which he helped to develop and beautify till it became the charming city of La Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Lyman were members of the Episcopal church of La Grange for which he provided an altar in memory of Father and Mother Lyman. As one of the greatest pleasures of his life was the getting of supplies for the Easter service, it was fitting that he should pass from this employment to the greater celebration above. On the morning of Good Friday, April 8, he rose early, walked about the village, ate a good breakfast and took the 8:14 train to Chicago. On the train and at the station he talked with friends, and seemed in a very happy mood. He walked from the train for his office by way of a church-supply house and ordered candles for the Easter service, and while the clerk was absent the body of Mr. Lyman slipped to the floor while he himself left to celebrate the resurrection of his Savior in heaven. His friends rejoice that without an instant's pain his going was so happy and triumphant. He leaves, besides his wife, a son and daughter, two brothers and a sister.

Curtis Jere Lyons, called to his rest, September 24th, 1914, aged 81 years.

We can only rejoice with our friend and brother, Curtis J. Lyons, that after so many years of feebleness and waiting, God permitted him through "A Great Light" to enter into the Heavenly Home, Sept. 24th, 1914.

We are privileged to present to the Cousins the following loving tribute to Mr. Lyons' personal worth and the respect in which he was held by this community, from the pen of the one who knew him best:

"Curtis Jere Lyons was a man of the greatest integrity and honor, and commanded the respect of all who knew him. Large-hearted and sympathetic, he was generous to a fault, and of his somewhat limited means he gave freely to those in need, and to the spread of the Gospel.

"His tastes were pre-eminently literary and scientific. Broad-minded and liberal, he was thoroughly interested in all the topics and questions of the day. In addition to the work of the Survey Department and the Weather Bureau, to both of which he was deeply attached, and which were very congenial to him, he found time in his leisure moments to pen numerous magazine and newspaper articles upon a great variety of subjects, political, scientific, religious, educational and historical, besides many addresses and essays of all kinds to be read before the various literary, religious, scientific and social organizations with which he was connected. In his prime he was one of the best-known and most highly respected men of this island community.

"He had an affectionate and lovable disposition, and while not lacking in true and manly courage, he was mild, gentle, kind, and forgiving. Having a deeply religious and conscientious nature, he was actuated in all he did and said by a sense of right and duty.

"His departure, after eleven years of semi-helpless invalidism, was not wholly unexpected, as he had been gradually failing for a long time. His last words, spoken with much difficulty, were: 'A great Light! A great Light!' 'Victory over death!' And as he passed through the gates into the City, his listening family caught the last whispered word, 'Jesus!' The example of his beautiful Christian life, and the inspiration of his triumph over death are a most precious legacy to his family."

Miss Fidelia M. Lyons, well known to kamaainas, especially on Hawaii, passed away quietly on the morning of Nov. 13, 1914.

The earthly remains were laid to rest in Kawaiahao Mission cemetery the next afternoon, after a simple but beautiful service at which Rev. A. A. Ebersole officiated. Hymns translated by Miss Lyons' father were sweetly sung in Hawaiian by a trio from the Kawaiahao Church choir, a fitting tribute to the departed one's love for Hawaii nei which was evinced in one of her very last conversations.

Miss Lyons was the daughter of the Rev. Lorenzo Lyons, once known as "The lyric poet of Hawaii." She was born at Waimea, Hawaii, Sep. 4, 1839, and passed most of her life in that village. There she and her sister continued, to some extent, the missionary labors that had so endeared their parents to the Hawaiians.

As a young girl she attended Punahou School, many present residents of Honolulu being among her schoolmates. Ten years ago failing health caused her to leave Waimea for Honolulu, where she has since resided. Hers was a simple, uneventful Christian life, characterized always by the strong but childlike faith that was her blessed heritage. She was uncomplaining through years of lonely seclusion and subsequent years of invalidism. Even in her last hours she showed consideration for those who cared for her rather than for herself.—Miss Lyons was a sister of Dr. A. B. Lyons of Detroit, Michigan, the late Prof. Curtis J. Lyons of Honolulu, and the late Mrs. Joseph Hay of Myrtle Point, Oregon.

(From "The Friend.")

William Harvey Rogers, second son of the missionary printer, Edmund Horton Rogers, was born Jan. 7, 1841, at Honolulu, and died May 17, 1914, at Oakland, Calif. His early life was connected with the "Mission" in Honolulu; first in the Rogers cottage on Printers' Lane, afterwards more widely known as "William Gullick's School," and when his mother became a widow, in the Diamond house, which stood on what is now the front lawn of the Library of Hawaii. His schooling was at Punahou under the Dole-Rice regime, and at the Royal School and Oahu College under Mr. E. G. Beckwith. He was never robust of body, and his mind developed in a facility for poetic expression. In the Oahu College Rhetoricals, May 29, 1862, Harvey read a lengthy poem of his own, entitled, "The Voyage of Life," which was incited by a series of famous paintings, grouped under that name, by Thomas Cole, the American artist, and better known to the world at large, Honolulu included, by steel-engraved copies. A local paper printed the poem just after it was read. Like others having his temperament, Harvey passed through periods of great depression, which alternated with others of elation; but normally he was fond of good company and ready to do his share in keeping it up. He was an expert candy-maker, and his handiwork rivaled the best imported.

The writer remembers a bit of his life when he was boss of the Haleakala Boys' School dairy. Eight people, by a fortuitous concurrence, sought shelter for the night in "The Cave," near the top of the great mountain—Bishop Willis of Honolulu and his traveling companion; Mrs. R. P. Thomas and daughter of Oakland, Cal.; a gentleman and his wife from Wailuku; and two of us from Makawao. Fleas, the hard floor, a smoky fire, and cold, conspired to make sleep a mere pretense, but the memory of that ten hours might be filed away under the title, "A Merry Night in Ten Acts," with Harvey Rogers and the California girl in the leading parts.

W. H. Rogers was married, Aug. 19, 1888, to Marie A. Souza, at Papaikou, Hawaii; and all of the nine children born to them except the youngest can claim Pepeekeo, in Hilo, as their native heath, for there was their father manager of the plantation store for many years. After transplanting his family to California soil, about seven years ago, Mr. Rogers suffered financial loss, and this reverse was followed by partial paralysis which by degrees reduced him to almost entire helplessness. But though his body was racked with pain, his mind was bright, and at intervals he made poetic composition his recreation.

Old friends lightened the weight of his last years by their sympathy and kind ministrations—Rev. James M. Alexander, Mrs. Mary E. Nott, Mrs. Emily A. Baldwin, Mrs. Martha C. Alexander and his brothers of the Masonic Order—and he died in full Christian faith.

R. W. A.

Mrs. Ann Maria Stangenwald died in Honolulu, Aug. 13, 1914.

Mrs. Stangenwald was the second daughter of Henry Dimond and Ann Maria Dimond, his wife. Her parents came to Hawaii in the same ship with the Rev. Titus Coan and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hall and others. More than forty years ago she married Dr. Hugo Stangenwald and was a most faithful and devoted wife. As a neighbor she most certainly fulfilled the "royal law." Her never-failing kindness and thoughtfulness, so quietly and unobtrusively bestowed, cannot be forgotten. She loved flowers and tended her garden with loving faithfulness, that she might have them to send to her friends in joy or sorrow, and often a growing plant which she had carefully tended formed her Christmas greeting to a friend. She had no children of her own, but "Aunt Annie" is a name full of sweetness to the large circle of young people who loved her. Unselfish devotion and cheerful patience were chief characteristics of this noble woman. "She has gone to her crowning," and her crown is well won.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth (Johnson) Williams died at Twin Lakes, Santa Cruz, Cal., on Jan. 1, 1915.

Elizabeth Johnson, born at Waioli, Kauai, Dec. 30, 1837, was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Edward Johnson, who arrived on the barque Mary Frazier in 1837. They were stationed on Kauai, and beautiful Waioli left its impress on the quiet, poetic, peace-loving temperament of little Lizzie Johnson. Early lessons from her mother and nine years of painstaking devotion to studies at Punahou fitted her for life. She went to California in 1862 and remained there some years, but in 1868 she was again in Honolulu as Miss Bingham's first assistant at Kawaiahao Seminary. Miss Johnson was married in 1872 to Mr. G. C. Williams, and they lived happily many years on the Kohala plantation, moving to the Spreckelsville, Maui, plantation in 1882. Here she made a delightful hostess and an ideal home-keeper, anticipating her husband's every wish, ruling her servants by love, and beautifying her home and grounds with flowers, shrubbery and trees.

Because of failing health Mr. Williams left the plantation in 1888 and went to California from whence they never returned, as Mr. Williams died in 1891. Mrs. Williams and her sister, Mrs. D. K. Fyfe, have since made their home at Twin Lakes, Santa Cruz Co., Cal. For some months her health has been failing, and on Jan. 1, 1915, her spirit passed peacefully to her heavenly home.

With the above eight sons and daughters of the Missionaries who have gone to the great reunion, were also two grandchildren.

Paul Findley De La Vergne, son of Col. George De La Vergne and the late Emily Dole Rice De La Vargne, was born in Clinton, Missouri, Dec. 11, 1870.

Later on his parents moved to Colorado Springs, where he met Clara Kennedy, whom he afterward married. This union was blessed by a son and daughter, Paul and Marjorie. Soon after his marriage he returned to the Islands and was in the employ of Lewers & Cooke, in which position he was greatly esteemed, but which he was forced to relinquish owing to the ill health of his wife. Returning to Los Angeles he engaged in real estate business, was known as a man of honor and integrity, and made many friends. During his residence in Los Angeles he made one or two trips to the Islands which he looked upon as home, and one of his greatest longings toward the close of his life was to visit them once more.

He had a keen sense of humor which tided him over many a hard place and made his companionship delightful. For two or more years before his death, while suffering from pulmonary trouble, and while going from place to place in search of health, his patience and cheerfulness were an inspiration to his many friends. Not long before the end, in conversation with his father, he expressed himself as satisfied with God's will. He passed away April 11, 1914. The funeral took place Apr. 12, at 10 a. m., conducted by Rev. Shaw and Rev. Fisher—a most comforting service. His body was laid away in Rosedale Cemetery, beside that of his beloved mother.

M. W. R.

Jared Knapp Baldwin, the son of Henry A. Baldwin, died June 27, 1914, at Paia, Maui.

He was born at Hamakuapoko, Oct. 4, 1899, and was a boy of promise and greatly loved. He had been attending Hitchcock's Military Academy at San Rafael, Calif., and was home for his summer vacation. Though he had been ill during the year, his friends were not prepared for the sudden closing of the gate between them and their loved one, and for a time they could only cry,

"The Beautiful Gate of Sleep is barred,

O, angel within!

The panels of pearl with diamonds starred

Give back no sound to my feeble knock,

I have no key that will turn the lock.

How long must I wait?

O, evermore and forevermore

Must I stand at the Beautiful Gate?"

"But oh! if they only, only knew

That God was tender, warm and true,

And that He loved them through and through

Their hearts would be glad to wait."

Ten Adopted Cousins were also on the loaded van as it rolled through the gates of welcome.

Mrs. Sarah Garretson Dyar Andrews died of pneumonia in Jacksonville, Florida, March 13, 1915, aged 75 years.

Mrs. Andrews was the daughter of John Dyar of Romeo, Wisconsin. She was married in 1868 to our "cousin" Dr. George Pierce Andrews, and located in Detroit, Mich. Here, not only the Doctor's popularity as a beloved physician, but Mrs. Andrews' brilliant conversational powers and winsome ways made their home a rendezvous for young people who were wont to gather for a "sing" or social evening. Mrs. Andrews was fond of literature, of art, and of attending lectures, and fairly reveled in the beauties of nature.

In 1889, when Dr. Andrews, after forty years' absence, returned for his health's sake to Honolulu, Mrs. Andrews and their only living daughter, Winifred, came also. Mrs. Andrews entered into church and social work in her charming way and won many friends. Her Bible-class of young ladies was greatly attached to her. For five years she was recording secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, and for one year its president. Soon after Dr. Andrews' death, in 1903, Mrs. Andrews and Winifred left the Islands, spending a year or two in Berkeley, Cal., and then returning to the old home in Detroit. In 1911 they took a greatly anticipated trip to Europe, returning in Oct. 1913. The winter of 1914 was spent in Florida to escape the cold weather, but here she was overtaken by pneumonia, and after two days of severe illness, in which she was "mercifully spared extreme distress," she passed away. Many friends met the casket at the Detroit station, and with palms and a great profusion of flowers, they gathered at the home of Dr. A. B. Lyons, where a short but comforting service was held before taking the car again for Romeo, Wis., where the body was laid to rest.

Miss Helen E. Carpenter died at West Woodstock, Mass., on September 2, 1914.

Miss Carpenter was one of that band of women who took the initiative in female education on these islands, and as such deserves special recognition. The pioneer among these was Miss Maria Ogden, and there followed Lydia Bingham, Mary Green, Helen Carpenter and Lizzie Lyons.

Helen Elizabeth Carpenter was born in Sturbridge, Mass., on Jan. 15, 1830. She was a schoolmate of Mrs. W. D. Alexander and Mrs. Geo. Beckwith at Mt. Holyoke Seminary, where she graduated in 1855. After spending some years in teaching in the homeland, she came to Hawaii in 1871 under the care of Dr. C. S. Kittredge, a trustee of Maunaolu Seminary on Maui. The new Maunaolu building was without furniture and equipment except such household supplies as Rev. C. B. Andrews and family brought from their own home, and thus amid privation and economies she began her care of Hawaiian girls. Three years later Mr. Andrews and family left the school and Miss Carpenter took charge, having for her first assistant Miss Mary Parker of Honolulu. In 1891, after spending near a score of years at beautiful Maunaolu, loved by her many pupils, trusted by their parents, and esteemed by all, Miss Carpenter left Makawao and removed to Honolulu. Though broken in health, she here took charge for a few years of a home for Hawaiian girls, in the old Chamberlain House on King street, similar in many respects to the present Kaiulani Home, and then she left the islands she so dearly loved, and returned to New England,

Her winters were mostly spent in Worcester, Mass., but in summers she lived for twenty years in her little home in West Woodstock, Conn., with her Hawaiian treasures about her—shells and coral from her pupils who had gone as missionaries to Micronesia, fans, rugs and tapa from Hawaii nei, with paintings by Father Bailey, and many island scenes upon her walls. All she wanted was to have some of her dear Hawaiian girls to care for her in her declining years. She grew weaker as the years went by, but her mind was clear, and the hand that held the pen was firm as ever. So life passed till about 1913 when her eyesight began rapidly to fail, and she became quite blind. For about a month she was very ill, unconscious most of the time, but at the last she passed peacefully away. As an appreciation of Miss Carpenter's work for Hawaiian girls she received, from King Kalakaua, the decoration of the Royal Order of Kapiolani. This jewel may now be seen at the office of the Old Mission Home, where Miss Carpenter sent it for preservation.

Capt. Charles Andrew Colcord died in Danbury, Conn., July 1, 1914, aged fifty-eight years.

Capt. Colcord, the last of a long line of sea-captains, was born at Searsport, Me., Sep. 28, 1855. He was the son of Capt. A. D. Colcord of the Morning Star, and began sea life as a boy, making his first cruise with his father. He came to the Islands early in 1876 and remained here about four years—part of the time in the employ of Mr. Bailey of Wailuku—and during that time making two cruises as mate of the Morning Star. In 1880 he went as supercargo on one of Wilder's steamers to California, where he engaged in mining. He never returned to Hawaii, but about 1885 went back to Searsport, there becoming master of deep-sea vessels. Leaving the sea he made his home in Danbury, Conn., where he lived for twelve years. He was probation officer of the Danbury court, a member of the 1st Congregational church of Danbury, an earnest Christian, taking an active part in the Christian Endeavor, and respected by all. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Isabelle Fayerweather Colcord, and a sister, Mrs. H. O. Appleby.

Mrs. Haina Aswan Imhoff died in Honolulu, March 7, 1915.

Haina Aswan was born in Honolulu, of Chinese-Hawaiian parentage, and was one of the little group of girls gathered about Mrs. Halsey Gulick in the embryo Kawaiahao Seminary for Girls. When Mrs. Coan, then Miss Lydia Bingham, arrived in 1867, Haina was about twelve years of age. She remained in the school for years, a most faithful pupil and a comfort and honor to her teachers. She became a Cousin about 1891, and previous to that she had married a good man, a German, E. F. Imhoff, who survives her. They had two children. The son was educated at Punahou. The daughter now lives at Kalihi. Mrs. Imhoff was one of the honored guests at the semi-centennial anniversary of Kawaiahao on Nov. 28. She was ever faithful and kindly, and in her life she exemplified the "royal law," "Aloha."

Mrs. Mary A. Locke passed away Jan. 2, 1914, "after an illness of only four days. Her disease was hemorrhage of the brain, and she was unconscious almost from the first. I believe she is now with her Redeemer and the loved ones gone before. The coming of the Annual Report of the H. M. C. Soc. for 1914 led to the sending of this message to you." So writes her sister, Mrs. Ellen A. Wilson, Appleton City, Missouri. Mrs. Locke was a teacher at Maunaloa in 1888-9.

Reverend William Brewster Oleson died on the eastward-bound train at Seligman, Arizona, on March 19, 1915. His health had not been good and he was anticipating a six months' vacation among the scenes of his youth.

Mr. Oleson was born in Portland, Maine, Sep. 9, 1851, was educated at the University of Maine, and graduated from the Theological Seminary at Oberlin, Ohio, in 1877, and after a short pastorate at Gambier, Ohio, came to Hawaii. For eight years he held the principalship of Hilo Boarding School, so long occupied by Father Lyman, resigning only to accept the pioneer work of organizing the Kamehameha Schools. Into this noble institution he threw the whole of his ability and energy for another eight years, and then returned to the States for the education of his children. There he served as pastor at Worcester, Ware, Holyoke, and for other Congregational churches for about fourteen years. He came again to Honolulu in 1908 and was elected Secretary of the Hawaiian Board of Missions, a position he has filled with honor till called to higher service.

Mr. Oleson's executive ability, his clear thinking and good judgment, his firmness and decision, his ability to understand human nature, his optimism, his kindness, all combined to make him an excellent instructor. His clear, concise statements also, so helpful for an educator were equally effective as a speaker, as a counselor, and as a leader of thought among men with whom he had later to deal. His courteous manners and winsome personality made for him many friends, while his courageous portrayal of the "faith of the fathers" won for him the respect of all.

While devoting much time in the later years to the individual problems of the several pastors in the various nationalities, he took time to plan for the future of the Association—its home, the conservation of its past records and its future work. To this end he gave much time to the planning of the new Hawaiian Board building, and one of the last public services he held was in Central Union Church on Hawaiian Board Day, when he appealed to every descendant of the Mission to help in this work. He said in part, "In five years more we celebrate the centennial anniversary of the arrival of the missionaries." "We do not honor the Fathers wisely or well unless we keep ever in mind that what they did they did as unto God, that to them it was supremely not their work but God's work that was laid upon them. We honor them best then when we . . . press the Christian evangelism of Hawaii as an obligation laid upon us in the providence of God, even as it was in their day laid upon them." "They organized the Hawaiian Board to provide an evangelizing agency that should live on after they were gone, and do for other men after them what they had loved to do." "What better monument could there be than to house that Board in a building suited to its actual needs in pressing the evangelism of the Fathers among the people of today."

Thus Mr. Oleson spoke, and worked, and lived. "For him to live was Christ, and to die was gain."

Miss Ida M. Pope died in Chicago July 15, 1914, at the home of her sister, where she was spending her vacation.

Miss Pope came to us from her home in Ohio in 1890 as a teacher for Kawaiahao Seminary. A year later she became principal, leaving that institution only to take charge of the new Kamehameha Girls' School in 1903, a position which she ably filled for twenty years with growing acceptability and success.

Intellectually Miss Pope was a superior woman, seeing clearly the end of her plans from the beginning, and adapting herself and manipulating circumstances to accomplish that end. To her keen business powers, clear insight into human nature and remarkable tact, was added the ability to love intensely. Her pupils were her children, and hundreds of Hawaiian girls have imbibed strength and character from her. By following her precepts and example they have gone out into the world encouraged to live noble lives of usefulness and become blessings to their nation. Not only Kamehameha Schools but the Hawaiian Islands mourn the death of Miss Ida M. Pope.

Mrs. Ruth C. Scudder was made a member of the Cousins' Society on May 19, 1906, she and Dr. Doremus Scudder being the last but one of all honorary members received.

She came to us full of life and health, radiating vitality. Artistic in temperament, she beautified her home and surroundings, and this lovely home and extensive view of sea, city and distant hills, she shared not only with dear friends, but with those who could say, "I was a stranger and ye took me in." She had always her class in the Bible-school, and was a leader of thought in Christian Endeavor. Having been a missionary in Japan all mission work was dear to her heart, and her sparkling enthusiasm was contagious. Her motto was "onward," and her clear judgment helped her to select only the best among the new ideas, and these she clearly presented and urged, though ready to bide her time till others could get her point of view. As the able President of the Woman's Board of Missions for six years her clear voice gave no uncertain sound. Mrs. Scudder had many friends, and we love to think of her as among the welcomers at the gate of the Beautiful City.

"Mrs. Louise Thompson passed away in Griffin Hospital, in Derby, Conn., Nov. 29, 1914, and was buried Dec. 1st, in Pine Grove Cemetery, Ansonia, Conn.

About March, 1914, Mrs. Thompson was overtaken by an attack of paralysis; in August a second attack left her mind as well as her body very much enfeebled; and on Nov. 7, a third shock left her in a semi-comatose condition from which she never rallied. She was not conscious of being removed from the house to the hospital. She had in Griffin Hospital the most careful attention possible."

Mr. Thompson, in writing the above to his friend Rev. J. M. Lydgate said, "It is rather hard to be left alone after fifty-three years of life together. But I can only thank God for his wondrous love and mercy to us all the years of our life together."

Mr. Frank Thompson was pastor of the Hilo Foreign Church for some years during the "60s" and "70s", and Mrs. Thompson, lively and popular, was greatly beloved. After leaving Hawaii, they went to Valparaiso, Chili, where Mr. Thompson was chaplain to the Seamen's Friend Society. About two years ago they removed to Ansonia, Conn., leaving one daughter, Mrs. M. Dorothea Unwin, in Valparaiso, and the other, Mrs. Caroline L. Morrison, in Scotland.

Mrs. Mary (Rockwell) Wilcox, wife of Edward P. Wilcox, after a long and painful illness, died at her home in Winsted, Conn., on Oct. 18, 1914.

Mary Pitkin Hinsdale Rockwell was born in Colebrook, Sep. 10, 1844, daughter of Bezaleel Beebe and Mrs. Caroline Hinsdale Rockwell. She received her education in the Winsted schools. For some years she taught in a private school in Philadelphia, and later was engaged for several years as a member of Swarthmore College faculty, Pa. She was united in marriage with Edward P. Wilcox Dec. 30, 1874.

Mrs. Wilcox was a member of the Woman's Home Mission Union of Conn., and for fifteen years served on the executive, retiring about a year ago on account of ill health. She was an ardent member of the Second Congregational Church, and a valued charter member of Green Woods Chapter, D. A. R. Besides her husband she leaves no near relatives. She was a woman of marked individuality, with a singularly clear, active mind, and great executive ability. She was always a student, an untiring reader of the best literature, and an entertaining companion. Her literary work in the societies of which she was a member was of a high order, and in social, philanthropic and religious life she was a positive force. During her long illness her faith and patience never faltered, and she leaves to home, church and many friends a sweet remembrance of conscientious work well done.

From "Winsted Evening Citizen."

Mrs. Joseph B. Ives, an invalid for over thirty years, was released, on March 4th, 1915, and carried from Paradise, Calif., to the Paradise above.

Little Chenery Giffard, son of H. B. and Julia Damon Giffard, after ten months spent in scattering gladness, fragrance and sunshine on earth, was carried at the dawn of Dec. 26, 1914, through the open door into the freer, purer air of heaven.

Little Mary Zabriskie Oleson, lent to earth for less than a year, was also called, on May 24, 1914, to that home where He is who took little children in his arms and said, "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Mrs. Charles Furneaux, for less than a year a widow, left Olaa, Hawaii, on June 29, 1914, to join her husband among the worshipers before the throne.

Mrs. Emma Angeline Ide Cruzan, wife of the late Rev. J. A. Cruzan, died at her home at Santa Rosa, Cal., Nov. 27, 1914.

Mrs. Cruzan was born in Vermont, and in earlier life was active in teaching and in musical circles. She shared the labors and influence of her husband's ministry in the various places where he served, and will be remembered as a woman of fine physical presence, high intellectual abilities, musical and administrative talents, and much force of character. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Fickenschier of Berkeley, and by two sons, Harold Ide Cruzan of the San Francisco bar, and Donald Cruzan of Santa Rosa.

"The Friend."

Dr. Wilbur P. Ferguson, head of Mid-Pacific Schools, died in Honolulu, Jan. 5, 1915.

We make no apology for inserting Dr. Ferguson's name here, though he was not a Cousin and had been in Hawaii but a year and a half. A born disciplinarian and teacher, he brought the Mid-Pacific Schools up to a high state of efficiency. He entered into Chinese church work and Y. M. C. A. as if that were his main business, and in Central Union Church his clear thinking, eloquent addresses, and firm hold on the essential Christian ideas were both helpful and inspiring. On the last Sabbath of the year he preached a powerful sermon from the text "Selah" (pause) and we feel bound to note this "pause" in the activities of this great and good man.

Since the closing of this report, March 31, there have been many events of interest to absent members, which will be recorded next year. We must, however, note the home-going of Capt. Isaiah Bray at Honolulu, on April 2, 1915.

Mrs. D. W. Corbett, at Middletown, N. Y., on April 9.

Mrs. Caroline Clark Austin, at Kealakekua, April 29.

Lieut. Clarence K. Lyman, Fort Shafter, Honolulu, May 16, 1915.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. W. ANDREWS,

Secretary.

TRUSTEE'S REPORT

April 16, 1915.

Mrs. R. W. Andrews, Secretary,
Hawaiian Mission Children's Society,
583 S. King Street, City.

Dear Madam:—

The last Annual Report showed (on page 51) no balance in "Revenue Account" and a summary of securities and cash in the savings department of the Bank of Hawaii amounting to $5994.21.

During the past year, your Trustees found it again necessary to draw on the income of the "Reserve Account" to make up the deficit partly caused by the necessity of plumbing repairs and the upkeep of the grounds. Later in the year certain contributions were increased and left us with a balance in the "Revenue Account" at the Hawaiian Trust Company of $76. The "Reserve Account" shows a total interest earned of $255.27. Thus, the "Reserve Fund" has been increased during the year by $198.62.

It is a coincidence that the number of individuals who contributed last year and this year is identical.

Very sincerely yours,

G. R. CARTER,
C. H. COOKE,
Trustees.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, 1915.

SYMBOLS IN THE LIST OF MEMBERS.

Original members of the Society, whether children of missionaries or elect members, have their names printed in the usual manner. The names of their children are preceded by one star, and those of children's children by two stars.

In many cases the name is preceded by a symbol in the margin, which denotes the person's missionary parentage or ancestry; and the key to the symbols is the list below, in which the missionary names are given, but no titles.

 Where the residence of a husband is given, that of the wife, in the next line, is the same.
